

Non-chronological report checklist

- I can write a concise introduction and conclusion.
- I can use technical geographical vocabulary.
- I can include varied, interesting information from my research.
- I can use a range of layout devices, including subheadings and tables.
- I can include a list with an independent clause, colon and bullet points.
- I can consistently write in the present tense.
- I can accurately use a range of punctuation, including commas, hyphens, colons and semi-colons.
- I can include a glossary of technical geographical vocabulary.

