

Multiplication sentences

Discover

- 1 a) How much has been collected in 5p coins?
- b) Danny writes 3×2 .
- What row of the table does this calculation represent?
- What do the 3 and the 2 represent?

Think together

1

Some friends bought 5  and 3 .

How much did they spend on each?

They spent £ on .

$$\square \times \text{£} \square = \text{£} \square.$$

They spent £ on .

$$\square \times \text{£} \square = \text{£} \square.$$

198

2 Use counters to show these multiplication sentences.

The first one has been done for you.

$$3 \times 2 \quad \bullet \bullet \quad \bullet \bullet \quad \bullet \bullet$$

$$4 \times 3$$

$$5 \times 5$$

3

CHALLENGE

Look at the picture. Tell a story of 4×2 .

Can you think of another story to tell?

First, I will think about what things I can see in 2s.

199