

Persuasive letter

The year is 1800. You are going to write a letter to George III of England, persuading him to support the abolition of slavery.

Recipient's name and address: King George III
Buckingham Palace
Westminster
London

Your name and address

Introduction

Point 1

Point 2

Point 3

Conclusion

Tick which techniques you are going to include in your letter, then give examples.

Facts

Statistics

Quotations

Rhetorical questions

Commands

Persuasive language

Subjunctive

Emotive language

Hyperbole

Flattery

Disadvantages of not changing

Benefits of change/vision for the future

